EVALUATION FACTORS

This is a competitive best value source selection in which competing offerors' past history will be evaluated on a basis significantly more important than cost or price considerations. The Government specifically reserves the right to award the contract to that responsible offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the Government, past performance and price factors considered. The Government reserves the right to make award to other than the offeror proposing the lowest price or may make award to other than the offeror whose proposal receives the highest past performance rating. The Government also reserves the right to make award on the basis of initial offers received. Negotiations may not be necessary and may not be used. Therefore, each initial offer should contain the offeror's best terms from a price and past performance standpoint. By submission of its' offer in accordance with the instruction provided in Section L, the offeror agrees to the terms of this model contract and all such offers shall be treated equally, except for their prices and performance records.

1. PAST PERFORMANCE - The offeror's present and past performance questionnaires as well as information obtained from other sources known to the Government will be evaluated to determine relevance of present and past work to the work required by this project. The purpose of the past performance evaluation is to allow the Government to assess the offeror's ability to perform the effort described in this RFP, based on the offeror's demonstrated present and past performance on relevant contracts. The performance confidence assessment process will result in an overall risk rating of Exceptional/High Confidence, Very Good/Significant Confidence, Satisfactory/ Confidence, Neutral/Unknown Confidence, Marginal/Little Confidence, or Unsatisfactory/No Confidence. Offerors with no relevant present or past performance history shall receive the rating "Neutral/Unkown Confidence", meaning the rating is treated neither favorably nor unfavorably.

2. PRICE - The offeror's proposed prices will be evaluated for completeness, fairness, and reasonableness.
